SHARE OPTIONS (CONTINUED)

The following is a summary of the principal terms of these share option schemes:

(i) 1994 Share Option Scheme

The 1994 Share Option Scheme was designed to motivate the employees to enhance their performance and contribution to the Group. Under the 1994 Share Option Scheme, the directors of the Company may, at their discretion, grant to any director, executive and/or employee who are in full time employment with any company in the Group, share options to subscribe for the Company's shares (each a "Share" or collectively the "Shares"), subject to the terms and conditions stipulated therein.

Under the 1994 Share Option Scheme, the maximum number of Shares in respect of which options may be granted will not exceed 10% of the issued share capital of the Company from time to time. The maximum number of Shares issued to each employee or director in respect of which options may be granted shall not exceed 25% of the total Shares in issue or to be issued under the 1994 Share Option Scheme.

The period within which an option may be exercised will be determined by the board of directors of the Company (the "Board") in its absolute discretion, save that the exercise period shall not be more than ten years from the date on which the option is granted. The consideration on acceptance of an offer of the grant of an option is HK$1.00 payable within 28 days from the offer date. The full amount of the subscription price for the Shares must be paid upon exercise of an option.

The exercise price of an option is determined by the Board and will not be less than 80% of the average of the closing prices of the Shares on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Stock Exchange") on the five trading days immediately preceding the date of offer of the share option or the nominal value of the Shares, whichever is higher.

The 1994 Share Option Scheme was terminated on 23rd May 2003. No further options shall thereafter be offered under the 1994 Share Option Scheme but the options which had been granted during its life shall continue to be valid and exercisable in accordance with their terms of issue and in all other respects the provisions of the 1994 Share Option Scheme shall remain in full force and effect.

As at the date of this report, a total of 322,000 Shares (representing approximately 0.014% of the existing issued share capital of the Company) may be issued upon exercise of all options which had been granted and yet to be exercised under the 1994 Share Option Scheme.

Under the 2003 Share Option Scheme, the Board may, at its discretion, invite any Participants to take up options. In determining the basis of eligibility of each Participant, the Board would mainly take into account the experience of the Participant on the Group's business, the length of service of the Participant with the Group or the length of business relationship the Participant has established with the Group and such other factors as the Board may at its discretion consider appropriate.

(a) Connected transaction

Acquisition of berth assets at Zhangjiagang Port

On 28th September 2006, Zhangjiagang Port Group Co. Ltd. (the "Vendor"), Win Hanverky Investments Limited ("WH Investments", a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company), and Zhangjiagang Win Hanverky Container Terminal Co., Ltd. (the "Purchaser", a sino-foreign equity joint venture established in the People's Public of China ("PRC") and owned by WH Investments and the Vendor as to 51% and 49% respectively), entered into an agreement (the "Agreement") in relation to the increase in the registered capital of the Purchaser from US$16,800,000 to US$36,800,000 (the "Capital Increase") and the acquisition of the certain berth assets (the "Sale Assets") (with value equivalent to the value of the land use rights, berth terminal projects, roads and storage yards, water supply and drainage, electrical engineering and ancillary works and other construction in progress in respect of berth no. 17 of the Zhangjiagang Port in the PRC (the "Berth Assets") less the agreed capital injection to be made by the Vendor into the Purchaser under the Capital Increase of US$9,800,000).

For the Capital Increase, WH Investments and the Vendor contributed in proportion to their existing shareholding. The contribution of US$10,200,000 by WH Investments was made in cash, with part of it coming from the WH Investments' entitlement in the undistributed profits of the Purchaser for the years ended 31st December 2004 and 2005 of RMB37,811,919, in aggregate. The contribution into the Purchaser of US$9,800,000 was settled by the Vendor by injecting part of the Berth Assets with equivalent value of the same amount (the "Injected Assets").

The amounts payable by the Purchaser in relation to the acquisition of Sale Assets comprised the following:

1. RMB171,081,967 (being the adjusted value of the Berth Assets determined by a valuer appointed by the Vendor) less the value of the Injected Assets of US$9,800,000 (being the contribution required to be made by the Vendor pursuant to the Capital Increase);
2. the agreed cost of funds of the Vendor (representing the appreciation in value of the Sale Assets since the reference date of the valuation of the Berth Assets as agreed between the Vendor and the Purchaser) calculated on the amount under item 1 at the interest rate of 5.022% per annum for the period from 1st November 2005 to 30th April 2006 and 5.265% per annum for the period from 1st May 2006 to the day immediately before the date of receipt of the relevant amount (with interest) by the Vendor;
3. subsequent expenses in respect of the Berth Assets incurred from November 2005 (i.e. immediately after the reference date of the valuation of the Berth Assets referred to below) to July 2006 in the aggregate amount of RMB13,611,143; and
4. interest on such subsequent expenses calculated at the same interest rates referred to in item 2 from the months in which the respective expenses were incurred up to the day immediately before the date of receipt of the relevant amount (with interest) by the Vendor.

Such amounts payable to the Purchaser was fully settled before the year end of 2006.

As the Vendor is a substantial shareholder of the Purchaser, the Vendor is therefore a connected person of the Company. Accordingly, the acquisition of Berth Assets constituted a connected transaction of the Company under the Listing Rules.

Investment in such berth is expected to boost the container throughput of the Group and the competitiveness of Zhangjiagang in the Yangtze region, ultimately consolidating the integrated terminal capability of the Group in such region.
